

AP SYLLABUS CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS

DIRECTIONS: Review the syllabus. Place the letter/number where evidence is found meeting this criteria. For example C1 next to first bullet under introduction. We need to make certain all criteria is met prior to submission.

European History and United States History: The course teaches students to analyze evidence and interpretations presented in historical scholarship.

- C1 The course emphasizes relevant factual knowledge about European history from 1450 to the present to highlight intellectual, cultural, political, diplomatic, social, and economic developments.
- C2 The course teaches students to analyze evidence and interpretations presented in historical scholarship.
- C3 The course includes extensive instruction in analysis and interpretation of a wide variety of primary sources, such as documentary material, maps, statistical tables, works of art, and pictorial and graphic materials.
- C4 The course provides students with frequent practice in writing analytical and interpretive essays such as document-based questions (DBQ) and thematic essays (see the AP European History/United States History Course Description for more information).
- A1 For courses that use a textbook, you have included complete bibliographic citation (author, title, publisher, year, and edition) for the primary textbook used.
- A2 As applicable to your course, and to best demonstrate how your course meets the curricular requirements, you have included a list or brief description of the types and quantity of instructional materials you use beyond the textbook (e.g., primary sources, newspapers, journals, audiovisual materials, software, model of graphing calculator, etc.).
- B1 Where appropriate or necessary, you have described sample assignments, assessments, or class activities to provide evidence of a particular curricular requirement.
- B2 For those courses in which the curricular requirements refer specifically to the topic outline or themes provided in the AP Course Description, you have clearly correlated the list of topics taught in your course with the Course Description's topic outline or themes.