Name _____
Period _____ Date _____

Arthur Costa's Levels of Questioning

Level One	answers are explicitly stated in the text one single correct answer
Examples	defining, describing, identifying, listing, naming, observing, reciting
Level Two	answers are implicitly stated in the text read between the lines- INFERENCE usually one correct answer
Examples	analyzing, comparing, contrasting, grouping, inferring, sequencing, synthesizing
Level Three	answers are not stated in the text many possible answers-if it can be justified by evidence from the text answer lies beyond the text
Examples	applying a principle, evaluating, judging, hypothesizing, imagining, predicting, speculating

Summary

A. Peterson 2003