

Fresno High School

Expected Schoolwide Learning Results

Upon graduation, every student will:

1. Be an effective communicator who
 - communicates in verbal form
 - communicates in written form
 - reads with comprehension
 - is an effective and active listener
 - uses technology for the purpose of communication
 - communicates artistically and aesthetically
2. Be a personally and socially responsible member of society who
 - demonstrates effective interpersonal skills:
 - is able to work positively with others
 - disagrees appropriately
 - enhances group process
 - respects self and others
 - practices constructive criticism
 - understands the importance of practicing emotional and physical wellness
 - develops an awareness for human diversity
 - is caring, careful consumer of the world's resources
 - demonstrates an understanding of the democratic process and its importance at school, local, state and national levels.
3. Be a self-directed learner who
 - accesses information from a variety of sources
 - works independently
 - utilizes effective study skills
 - adapts to changing educational and career conditions
4. Be an effective problem solver who
 - demonstrates competency in math problem solving, communicating, reasoning, making connections
 - identifies problems and uses various strategies to reach acceptable solutions
 - processes information from a variety of sources
 - applies critical thinking skills towards the solution of real-life problems
 - demonstrates perseverance in search of solutions
5. Be an individual with an awareness of aesthetics and humanities who
 - appreciates cultural diversity
 - demonstrates tolerance of various viewpoints and belief systems
 - demonstrates an understanding of the human past and its creative endeavors
6. Be a competent user of available technology who
 - has the ability to access information
 - demonstrates competence with various technological devices
 - applies technology to solve problems